New Health Clinic Audio Care System

The days of searching for that slip of paper that you wrote your health clinic appointment on weeks earlier are over.

The Stuttgart Army Health Clinic now features the AudioCare reminder system in an effort to help reduce patient "no shows" at the clinic. The system will track patient appointments and send a courtesy reminder phone call with an automated message reminder two business days prior to the date of the appointment.

To find out more about the new AudioCare system, see the Dec. 20 edition of The Citizen.

Robinson Barracks Thrift Shop

The shop has a wide variety of items that will make fine Christmas gifts including albums with postage stamps, older German collectables, a few antiques such as a 1900 vender's wagon and a wind organ, knickknacks and much more.

Also available are transformers (all sizes), DSL complete set-ups ($35.00), a 220 volt kitchen stove, BDUs, children and adult clothing for the winter, baby items, shoes and boots.

Video cassettes on priced 50 cents each.

Donations are always needed and greatly appreciated. Donations can be dropped off day and night inside the entrance to building 196 (down the stairs). Please do not block building entrance.
